4. Issue notice.

4.1 Mr Rohit Jain, learned counsel, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent/assessee.

5. Mr Jain says that he will file the complete record concerning the Assessment Years (AYs) which are in issue. The statement of Mr Jain has been taken on record.

6. One of the submissions that has been advanced by Mr Abhishek Maratha, senior standing counsel, who appears on behalf of the appellant/revenue, is that additional evidence qua Mrs Malvika Rai who was working with the respondent/assessee could not have been accepted by the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal [in short, “the Tribunal”].

6.1 Mr Jain points out that additional evidence was tendered before the Tribunal only vis-à-vis Assessment Year (AY) 2007-08.

7. We may note that the above-captioned appeals concern AYs 2007-08 to 2011-12.

8. It is also Mr Jain’s contention that additional evidence was, in fact, tendered before the Commissioner of Income Tax Appeals [in short, “CIT(A)”] in respect of AY 2008-09.

8.1 Mr Jain says that in the appeal filed by the appellant/revenue before the Tribunal for this AY, no ground was taken with regard to the acceptance of additional evidence.

8.2 As a matter of fact, according to Mr Jain, a remand report was called for by the CIT(A), whereupon additional evidence was accepted.

9. Insofar as the remaining AYs are concerned, according to Mr Jain, the evidence which provided the justification for the remuneration paid to Mrs Rai was tendered before the Assessing Officer (AO).

10. It is in this backdrop that we have asked Mr Jain to file the entire record before us.

11. We may also note that the respondent/assessee was in appeal before the Tribunal only vis-à-vis AY 2007-08. Insofar as remaining AYs are concerned, the appellant/revenue was in appeal before the Tribunal.

12. List the above-captioned appeals on 12.09.2023.

13. In the meanwhile, counsel for the parties will file their written submissions, not exceeding five pages each, at least five days before the next date of hearing.
