9. At this stage, it is pertinent to note herein that this Court in the case of Sh. Raj Rani Bhasin vs. State<sup>1</sup>, has held that the person to whom LoA is granted does not thereby become entitled to the property or estate of the deceased/testator and the estate still succeeds according to the law of succession applicable to the deceased/testator. The primary objective of a LoA, issued by the Court, is to authorize the appointed administrator to gather and consolidate the assets of the deceased or testator. It also allows the administrator to interact with relevant authorities where such assets are held or recorded, enabling the realization of those assets and facilitating their transfer to the rightful successors in accordance with the applicable laws of succession. It was further held that the administrator is required to, from time-to-time, to file accounts in the Court with respect to the administration of the estate and/ or as to how the estate has been settled/ transferred to the successors in accordance with the law of succession applicable to the deceased and upon the administrator defaulting in the same, the Court retains the power to revoke the grant. For the sake of clarity, Paragraph no.9 of the aforesaid decision reads as under:

“9. The person to whom letters of administration are granted does not thereby become entitled to the property or estate of the deceased. The estate still succeeds according to the law of succession application to the deceased. The purpose of Letters of Administration is merely to enable the administrator so appointed by the Court to collect/ assimilate the properties of the deceased, and/ or to deal with the various authorities with whom the properties of the deceased may be vested or recorded and to realize the same and / or to have the same transferred in the names of the successors in accordance with law of succession applicable to the deceased. The administrator is required to, from time-to-time, file accounts in the Court with respect to the administration of the estate and/ or as to how the estate has been settled/ transferred to the successors in accordance with law of succession application to the deceased and upon the administrator defaulting in the same, the Court retains the power to revoke the grant.”

10. Under the aforesaid circumstances, there is no impediment in directing for issuance of LoA in accordance to the Wills. Besides, if the valuation qua any of the immovable property is not received, let the issuance of LoA be subject to the same.
11. In view of the aforesaid, the Court directs for issuance of LoA subject to statutory compliances before the concerned Registrar. Let the petitioner also make the payment of the necessary stamp duty.
12. The requirement of surety bond stands exempted as there is no objection to the Wills.
13. List before the concerned Joint Registrar on 12.11.2025 for compliance.
