case to grant at least interim bail for three weeks to the accused/applicant as he has to take care of his ailing mother, who has to undergo some spinal surgery on 15.01.2026 and 16.01.2026. It is further submitted by learned senior counsel that medical documents have already been furnished to the IO, who has verified the same. Learned senior counsel has explained that earlier, the surgery was scheduled for 25.12.2025 as mentioned in paragraph 5 of the application but the same could not be carried out due to medical complications of mother of the accused/applicant.

4. Learned APP submits that medical documents of mother of the accused/applicant have been verified and the same are found genuine. But, it is submitted by learned APP that accused/applicant has two sons aged 23 and 19 years, who can take care of mother of the accused/applicant.

5. Learned senior counsel submits that the sons of the accused/applicant are students. Besides, it is also explained that earlier, for same grounds the accused/applicant was granted interim bail three times for two weeks each but he duly surrendered when the surgery got postponed.

6. After some discussion, as requested by both sides, the application is disposed of directing release of the accused/applicant on interim bail subject to his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.20,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned trial court for the period from 13.01.2026 to 27.01.2026 and in case the surgery of mother of the accused/applicant again gets deferred and is not performed on 16.01.2026,
