29.05.2024

CS(OS) 178/2023

1. As per office note, common Written Statement alongwith separate Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents filed by defendant no.4&5, common Written Statement alongwith common Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents filed by defendant no.1, common Written Statement alongwith common Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents filed by defendant no.2&3 and common Written Statement alongwith common Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents filed by defendant no.6&7 are on record. However, on perusal of Affidavits of Admission/Denial of the documents filed by defendants, it is found that the same have not been filed in the prescribed format as per Chapter VII of Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules. So, the defendants are directed to file fresh/revised Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents in accordance with law within two working weeks with copy to the opposite side.

2. As reflected in the order dated 12.03.2024, the plaintiff had made a statement before the Hon'ble Court that the plaintiff does not wish to file Replication to the Written Statements of the defendants and accordingly, the Hon'ble Court noted that the pleadings are complete in the present matter.

2.1 At this stage, it is stated by learned counsel for the plaintiff that he has not filed Replication in the present matter but has filed Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents qua documents of the defendants alongwith an application seeking condonation of delay vide diary no.E-412455/2024. However, neither any Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents nor any application seeking condonation of delay filed by the plaintiff is on record. Needless to say, Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents, if any, filed by the plaintiff shall be taken on record as per law.

3. The plaintiff is directed to file soft copy as well as physical copy of Joint Schedule of the documents at least three weeks before the next date of hearing with copy to the opposite side.

Re-notify the matter for completion of pleadings and admission/denial of documents on 01.08.2024.
